THINKING GLOBALLY ACTING LOCALLY

Thinking globally and acting locally, CITYarts' projects build bridges of cultural understanding, giving youth the opportunity to take an active role in shaping their own future. Since 1968, CITYarts has created 284 projects that have transformed communities and impacted over 100,000 kids, collaborated with more than 500 artists, partnered with over 1,500 sponsors, and engaged over 500,000 volunteers in the process. CITYarts' projects frequently foster community revitalization by galvanizing businesses, schools, and community organizations into developing youth programs and constructing playgrounds and gardens.

CITYarts 2011 HONOREES

IRENE PRITZKER, President of the IDP Foundation, Inc.

The IDP Foundation was founded in 2008 with a mission to develop and support innovative programs devoted to improving the quality of life for people and organizations in need particularly as it relates to poverty alleviation. One such initiative is the IDP Rising Schools Program, created by the IDP Foundation, Inc. in collaboration with Sinapi Aba Trust, a Ghanaian microfinance NGO and Opportunity International. This program is proving that investing in the affordable private school sector with a mixture of loans and capacity building services can improve the quality of education in the poorest regions of Ghana.

BYRON PITTS, Chief National Correspondent CBS; Contributing Correspondent, "60 Minutes"

Byron Pitts is a contributor to 60 MINUTES and chief national correspondent for THE CBS EVENING NEWS WITH KATIE COURIC. Pitts is the author of "Step Out on Nothing" (St. Martin's 2009), an inspirational autobiography chronicling his rise from a disadvantaged youth. His awards include a national Emmy for his coverage of the Chicago train wreck in 1999 and recognition from the National Association of Black Journalists as Best Journalist of the Year in 2002, the organization's highest honor. He is also the recipient of four Associated Press Awards and six regional Emmy Awards.
